

Lesson Plan

Course: Philosophy A Level	Tutor: Roger Jones	Date: Thursday, 14 May 1998, 6:30 - 9:30
----------------------------	--------------------	--

Aims:

- 1) To enable Students to gain an understanding of, philosophical ideas , their historical presentation and their contribution to present day philosophical debate with relation to faith in and the existence of God
- 2) To strengthen Students' capacity for analysis, critical reasoning and judgement and their ability to express themselves in these modes.
- 3) To introduce students to appropriate methods of examination technique

Timing	Objectives	Method	Resources
10min	Make students aware of examiners requirements	Discuss examiners' report	Complete A level paper with examiners report
20min	Recap on last week: Ontological, Cosmological and Teleological arguments	Class discussion	Handouts given in previous week.
45 min	Anthropic principle, Problem of evil (intro)	Discuss and explain handouts	Handouts including: Analytic Philosophy, Philosophy of Religion Hospers Anthropic Principle Scruton Voltaire
Break
40 min	Problem of evil	Explain handouts and class discussion
40 min	The meaning of religious language	Explain handouts and class discussion	